Tires Guide picks

Tire makers and tire buying aids

About Cars Tire Safety Guide

Worried about tire safety? Good! Tires are vital to your life. Now click on our special tires feature... a simple guide to tire care, choosing tires, links to information and tire makers.

Autopedia Tire Bulletin Board

The number of postings is a bit overwhelming yet this bulletin board is a goldmine of owner opinions. That's "owner," not "pro," but sometimes the consumer knows best.

Balogh Export, Inc.

This Miami company is an international distributor of tires and tubes, focusing on Central and South America and the Caribbean. The staff is fluent in English, Spanish, and Portuguese.

BFGoodrich

First pneumatic tires in America, first tubeless tire, first American radial, first test flight of the Space Shuttle, and many firsts in racing. What else can I say?

Bridgestone

Japanese tire maker is a sensation in Formula One, among other series, which translates to progress on the road. Info on Firestone, Dayton, also found here as Bridgestone owns both.

Consumer Search

Continental

Well-known European tire maker, often used as original equipment supplier to the major car manufacturers. The site is a little vague but fortunately these quality tires aren't.

Discount Tire Co.

Claims to be America's largest independent tire dealer. The site is attractive and easy to navigate and besides, it has a URL that most tire dealers would pay a fortune to own!

Dunlop Tire Corporation

Originating in England, it is one of the oldest. Dunlop is famous for discovering the dangers of "aquaplaning" on wet roads and doing something about it. Racer, innovator.

Firestone

Now Bridgestone-Firestone but anyone who's been around long enough knows the name as one of America's original tire makers. Back in CART and well-backed by its owners.
